Licence Conditions

1. This Licence is issued in accordance with and subject to the Act and the Regulations, and shall remain valid for the duration of Licence, unless cancelled prior thereto by the Info-communications Development Authority of Singapore (“IDA”) in accordance with the Act or Regulations, or the conditions herein.
2. The Licensee hereby represents and warrants that the information and/or documents furnished and supplied for the purposes of applying for this Licence is true and accurate.
3. The Licensee and all the persons operating the Stations which the Licensee is authorised by this Licence to establish, install and operate, shall observe and comply with the Act, the Regulations and the conditions of this Licence.
4. The Licensee shall not permit or cause any unauthorised person to operate the Stations or have access to the Stations and equipment contained therein. The Licensee shall ensure that persons authorised to operate the Stations observe the conditions of this Licence at all times.
5. The Stations shall be used only with the emissions at the frequency(s) of the class(es) and power respectively specified in this Licence.
6. The Licensee shall ensure that the equipment comprised in the Stations shall at all times comply with all applicable emission standards and technical specifications or requirements specified by IDA, from time to time, in relation thereto.
7. The Licensee shall maintain up-to-date records of the list of the Stations, including the installation location of the Stations, name of equipment manufacturer, model, serial number of the equipment, frequency(s), output power, date of purchase and date of disposal of the equipment. This list shall be made available for inspection by IDA as and when requested. The Licensee shall also be required to submit the updated list in the manner specified by IDA at least one month prior to the expiry of this Licence. This Licence shall only be renewed upon submission of the aforesaid list to IDA. A failure to comply with this condition amounts to an offence under the Regulations.
8. The Licensee shall permit or ensure that permission is granted to an authorized person of IDA upon production of proof of identity, to enter any building, premises, compound or other place, vehicle, vessel or aircraft where the Stations are installed or are being installed, to enable the said authorised person to inspect, examine or test any equipment comprised in the Stations.
9. The equipment comprised in the Stations shall be designed, constructed, maintained or used such that the Stations, when used, shall comply with the Act and Regulations and not cause interference to any other licensed or authorised stations or networks or telecommunication installation or equipment which may be lawfully owned, used or operated by any other person. The Licensee shall permit an authorised officer of IDA to inspect the equipment comprised in Stations in order to determine whether the interference is in fact caused by the said equipment.

10. IDA may, at any time, withdraw the frequency(s) from or allocate a different frequency(s) lawfully in place thereof to the Licensee without assigning any reason(s) therefor.
11. Unless authorised in writing by IDA, the connection of any equipment comprised in the Stations to a Public Telecommunication Licensee's network will not be permitted.
12. The Licensee shall notify IDA of any intended change of address of the Licensee or any proposed change in any of the equipment comprised in the Stations or any proposed change in the operating radio frequency(s), the mode of transmission or usage, the location at which the Stations are installed, and before such change is effected, the Licensee shall obtain the prior written approval of IDA. A failure to comply with this condition amounts to an offence under the Regulations.
13. The Licensee and persons authorised by the Licensee to operate the Stations shall ensure that the Stations and the equipment comprised therein are not used for unlawful purposes or misused in any way. A failure to comply with this condition amounts to an offence under the Regulations.
14. The Licensee shall ensure that the Stations, including the equipment comprised therein, the operating radio frequency(s) and the location at which the Stations are installed are not tampered with or modified in any manner unless IDA's written approval has been obtained. As and when directed by IDA, the Licensee shall, at its own cost, conduct inspections on the equipment in order to satisfy IDA that the equipment has not been tampered with or modified. A failure to comply with this condition amounts to an offence under the Regulations.
15. The Stations and this Licence shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any duly authorised officer of IDA. A failure to comply with this condition amounts to an offence under the Regulations.
16. IDA may vary, modify, suspend and cancel any of the terms of this Licence in accordance with the Act and the Regulations.
17. When the Licensee ceases to operate the Stations or where this Licence ceases to be valid, the Licensee shall return the licence to IDA for cancellation and IDA may require the Licensee to seal, disable or dismantle the equipment comprised in the Stations in the presence of any authorised IDA officer. A failure to comply with this condition amounts to an offence under the Regulations.
18. The Licensee shall not possess any radio-communication equipment, except and in accordance with a licence granted under section 5(1) of the Act or any regulations made under the Act or except where as approved by IDA in writing.

19. The Licence fee shall be paid in advance and shall not be refundable.
20. This Licence is not transferable except with the prior written approval of IDA.
21. The Licensee shall comply with any directions or notifications which IDA may, from time to time, issue.
